New Laws Call For Carbon Monoxide Testers In All New Construction!***

**in Minnesota*

Become a safety partner with your customers by offering them BRK / First Alert® detectors from DSG!

- January 1, 2007 – All new residential construction must install a carbon monoxide (CO) tester within 10 feet of a bedroom.
- January 1, 2008 – All residential dwellings must retrofit to the new law.
- January 1, 2009 – All multi-dwelling residential buildings must be retrofitted to the standard.

Be the CO detector expert for your clients! Make sure they know the law and offer your help. Together, you and DSG can supply them with all of the BRK / First Alert® detectors they need!
